Well it happened, Times have caught up with us, we held off as long as we could...Prices increased this year. We have a new price structure and hopefully it's not too complicated. Also, lightning took out the computer with all the gun show information on it. I did have a backup file but it wasn't updated with last year's new vendors. I may be missing some folks so please pass this along as you see fit. For any new vendors we ask that %80 be related to the hunting, shooting, fishing, outdoors theme. Feel free to contact me for questions.
